Do you have any words you like? I like the words "Thank you." Now I'm going to talk about my *experience with those words.

In October, I worked at Mr. Suzuki's flower shop near my house for a week. On the first day, Mr. Suzuki told me what to do there.

5 Many *customers came to the shop every day. It was hard for me to learn how to *wrap flowers. I just said, "Thank you," without smiling for a few days, because I was very busy.

On the fourth day, an old man came to the shop to buy some flowers. Mr. Suzuki told me to wrap the flowers for him. *It took me about ten minutes to wrap them, but he waited without saying anything. When I finished, I said to him, "Thank you for waiting for a long time." He smiled and said, "That's OK. Wow, beautiful *wrapping! Thank you." His words and smile made me happy. Then I could say, "Thank you very much," *with all my heart. The old man smiled again and left the shop.

Later on the same day, I said to Mr. Suzuki, "I learned an important thing today. If I do or say something with all my heart, I can make customers happy. I want to say kind words when someone tries to do something very hard." He said, "That's good, Saki! I hope you will remember that."
